

Presbyterian Homes & Services (PHS) communities comply with applicable civil rights laws and do not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex, age, or disability in their health programs and activities. PHS communities also do not exclude people or treat them differently because of race, color, national origin, sex, age, or disability.

PHS communities (1) provide appropriate auxiliary aids and services (including qualified interpreters for individuals with disabilities and information in alternate formats) free of charge and in a timely manner when such aids and services are necessary to ensure an equal opportunity to participate to individuals with disabilities, and (2) provide appropriate language assistance services (including translated documents and oral interpretation) free of charge and in a timely manner when such services are necessary to provide meaningful access to individuals with limited English proficiency.

PHS communities have established a grievance procedure for individuals who believe that someone has been subjected to discrimination on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex, age, or disability. A grievance can be filed with the community's administrator or through the PHS Corporate Compliance Officer at 1-844-761-0287 or compliance@preshomes.org.

Individuals can also file a civil rights complaint with the Department of Health & Human Services Office for Civil Rights online (<https://ocrportal.hhs.gov/ocr/portal/lobby.jsf>) or by mail or phone at U.S. Department of Health & Human Services, 200 Independence Avenue SW, Room 509F, HHH Building, Washington, D.C. 20201, 1-800-368-1019, 800-537-7697 (TDD).
